Jared Eberwein

Team Manager/ Freestyle Specialist

From Riverside California, Jared as been riding for 12 years, he is not just the team manager, but an active rider that pushes his limits every time he rides. Great working with kids as he visits and preforms at schools, and venues around the country.

Daniel Sandoval

Freestyle Specialist

Daniel Sandoval never set out to become a professional BMX rider. He just started riding his bike in the skatepark every day after school as a kid, and one day a few older riders taught him how to do tricks. In 2014, he earned his first X Games medal, a bronze. He followed that up the next year with an even more successful performance, landing his first X Games gold medal in 2015. Daniel is also a member of the Team USA Olympic Freestyle team and will competing in the next Summer games in 2020.

Chris Rivers

Freestyle Specialist

The Riverside California local, knows how to have fun when he rides. Chris has been riding freestyle for over 10 years, he is a skate park junkie. Loves to ride with the kids at the parks, and will do what he can to help anyone to make sure they are enjoying their ride.

Ricky Moseley

Freestyle Specialist

From Huntington Beach California, Ricky has been riding BMX for over 10 years. Growing up in the dirt, you will find Ricky ripping it up on dirt jumps whenever he can, but he will still hit up the local skate parks as well. Ricky is just as passionate in his love of photography as he is of BMX.

Dustin McCarty

Freestyle Specialist

A good sense of humor and just wanting to have fun, thats what life is all about, according to Dustin. From Vista California, Dustin has been riding his bike for as long as he can remember. You can find Dustin at any elementary school showing the kids his mad skill on a weekly bases. He is an entertainer and that is exactly what he likes to do.

Jack Fahey

Freestyle Specialist

Jack is from the Gold Coast of Australia currently living in California, Jack has been riding competitively for over 6 yrs in Freestyle BMX as a professional athlete. It was his dream and ambition to make a career from the love of riding, traveling the world participating in competitions, representing his sponsors and passing on his knowledge and expertise to other passionate riders.
